PROCLAMATION OF ELECTION.

TERRITORY OF ARIZONA,
Executive Department.

Whereas, Under an act of the legislative assembly of the territory, entitled "Elections," and approved March 8, 1887, it is provided that there shall be held throughout the territory, upon the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1890, and every two years thereafter, an election for members of the legislative assembly and such other officers as may be required by law; and

Whereas, It is further provided in said act that at least thirty days before each general election the governor must issue an election proclamation, under the great seal of the territory, and transmit copies thereof to the clerks of the boards of supervisors of the counties in which such elections are to be held; such proclamation to contain a statement of the time of the election and the offices to be filled, and the offer of a reward in the form prescribed by said act;

Now, therefore, I, Nathan O. Murphy, governor of Arizona, in pursuance of the duty enjoined upon me, do hereby order a general election to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1890, and the offices to be held at such election I do hereby designate to be as follows, to-wit:

"One delegate to the fifty-seventh congress of the United States.

Twelve members of the council of the legislative assembly of Arizona, and twenty-four members of the house of representatives of the legislative assembly of Arizona, apportioned agreeably to existing laws as follows:

Apache county, one member of the council and one member of the house of representatives; Coconino county, one member of the council and one member of the house of representatives; Cochise county, one member of the council and three members of the house of representatives; Gila county, one member of the council and one member of the house of representatives; Graham county, one member of the council and two members of the house of representatives; Maricopa county, one member of the council and four members of the house of representatives; Mohave county, one member of the council and one member of the house of representatives; Navajo county, one member of the council and one member of the house of representatives; Pima county, one member of the council jointly with the county of Santa Cruz and three members of the house of representatives; Pinal county, one member of the council and two members of the house of representatives; Santa Cruz county, one member of the council jointly with the county of Pima, as aforesaid, and one member of the house of representatives; Yavapai county, one member of the council and three members of the house of representatives; Yuma county, one member of the council and one member of the house of representatives.

And there shall be elected in each county of the territory, one probate judge, one district attorney, one sheriff, one treasurer, one recorder, one surveyor, two members of the board of supervisors, and in the county of Santa Cruz there shall be elected three members of the board of supervisors, and in each county of the first class and each county of second class one assessor shall be elected; also in the several precincts of each county one justice of the peace and one constable shall be elected, and in such precincts as are entitled to two justices of the peace and two constables that number shall be elected.
There shall also be elected in each county of the first class one county school superintendent.

And I do hereby offer a reward of fifty dollars for the arrest and conviction of any and every person violating any part of the provisions of Title IV, Part I of the Penal Code.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the territory to be hereunto affixed. Done at Phoenix, the capital, this 27th day of September, A. D. 1890.

SMITH'S UNFAIRNESS.

Fresh Evidence of His Underhanded Work in His Campaign.

Mark Smith's newspapers, in a desperate endeavor to find some spot on Governor Murphy's record to which their mud will stick, have been stupid enough to think that they could mislead voters and create the impression that the Governor is not the friend of laboring men, by howling that he vetoed the bill introduced by Parr and passed by the last legislature which purported to protect laboring men from being "blacklisted."

The simple facts are that when the bill reached the governor it contained no enacting clause and was therefore without any force, and as a matter of course he returned the bill without his approval, and the House upon seeing that the bill was absolutely worthless as it stood, unanimously sustained the veto.

Here is the official record from the office of the secretary of the territory:

Territory of Arizona,
Office of the Secretary.

United States of America, Territory of Arizona, ss.

I, Charles H. Akers, secretary of the territory of Arizona, do hereby certify that the official journal of the Twentieth legislature assembly of the territory of Arizona (Page 811) contains the following history of house bill No. 37, in these words and figures, to-wit:

"House Chambers, Twentieth Legislative Assembly, Territory of Arizona.

Phoenix, Arizona, March 9, 1899.
To the Honorable House of Representatives of the Twentieth Legislative Assembly of Arizona:

I have the honor to return without my approval, H. B. No. 37, an Act to prohibit person, persons, agent, official, firm, corporation, companies and associations from giving unjust references, etc. This bill is fatally defective, in that it has no enacting clause.

N. O. MURPHY, Governor.

Motion to pass H. B. No. 37, the governor's veto notwithstanding, failed to prevail by the following vote:

Nays—Adams, Burtleson, Benham, Brown, Doan, Donau, Etz, Evans, Gonzales, Gray, Imus, Moore, Pace, Parr, Peterson, Pusch, Scott, Stevens, Woods, Williams—20.

Absent—Arthur, Hale, Sanders, Mr. Speaker—4.

In witness whereof, I have here-unto set my hand and affixed my official seal. Done at the city of Phoenix, the capital, this 27th day of October, A. D. 1900.

Secretary of the Territory of Arizona.

Used by British Soldiers in Africa.

Capt. C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as commander of the forces that captured the famous rebel Galishe. Under date of Nov. 4, 1897, from Vryburg, Bechuanaland, he writes: "Before starting on the last campaign I bought a quantity of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used myself when treated with bowel complaint, and had given to my men, and in every case it proved most beneficial." For sale

WILL C. BARNES, formerly a resident of Holbrook, and who represented this county in the Eighteenth Legislative Assembly of Arizona, is candidate for a like position on the Republican ticket from Colfax county, New Mexico, and we are glad to learn that his chances for election are very bright.

We notice in the Arizona Bulletin an article on Murphy being opposed to the Mormons. It seems queer, indeed, what some papers will ring up for political purposes. The matter spoken of by the Bulletin might have been all right ten years ago, but those prejudices do not exist today as they did then, and Gov. Murphy will not lose any votes on this score.

SAM WEBB, in a speech at Phoenix Oct. 28, scores Murphy for being a friend of the sheepmen. This only shows what desperate means the democrats are using—trying to set up one section of the territory against the other. There is no better class of people in the territory than our sheepmen, and why shouldn't Gov. Murphy be a friend to them? Webb was a member of the commission to investigate the forest reserves, and from his reports of the trip there is no doubt about his attitude toward the woolly element.

"Yea, verily."

The New York Herald has made

My wife has been using Chamfor a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this

The Tribune says that an Arizona jury decided that a man can draw out of a poker game when he is winner. At Octave Yavapia county, last week. Charley Thompson objected to John Lee cashing in when $50 ahead of the game. At the coroner's inquest on the body of Thompson, the jury brought in a verdict of justifiable homicide. The decision was so manifestly fair that the case will probably not be carried up. So this ought to settle a much mooted question.

Do you take the Argus? Why not?

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splen-benefit they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, or threat-averted and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by F. J.
